

Texts covered

- Thankyou for being my friend
- It's my birthday
- Funnybones

English

- We will draw around a body template and write labels for body parts.
- We will write about how old we are and un jumble a sentence so it makes sense.

Maths

- We will count candles on a cake.
- We will learn to put objects in a line to help count them.
- We will sort pictures of things with a Skelton/ without.
- We will use positional language for placing parts of the body together.

Me, Myself & I

Physical development

- We will work with our friends to move in different ways.
- We will develop our fine motor skills through activities such as making friendship bracelets.
- We will play physical games where we work together with others.

Communication & language

- We will begin to talk to new adults and children about our own wants, interests and needs.
- We will talk about our own experiences including family events and birthdays.
- We will develop our listening skills to help with conversations.

Understanding of the world

- We will discuss our family, our own likes and interests and our friends.
- We will use coloured windows to make a house depending on who lives with us.
- We will learn the main names for parts of our body and what a skeleton is for.

Personal, social and emotional development

- We will learn what makes a good friend.
- We will make friendship bracelets to give to our friends.
- We will learn about the traffic light behaviour system.

Expressive arts & design

- We will paint a handprint birthday cake.
- We will work together to make a large birthday cake collage.
- We will use art straws to make a skeleton.
- We will learn the skeleton dance song.