

Texts covered

- Bonfire
- Percy the park keeper
- Squirrels Autumn search
- The nutty nut chase
- The polar bear who saved Christmas
- Santa's toy shop
- A letter to Santa

English

- We will be writing about our coke bottle investigation.
- We will write our own letters to Santa.
- We will write about our Bonfire experiences.

Maths

- We will count and order numbers on scarecrows.
- We will use the right language to talk about time and things we do in the day.
- We will practise adding objects together.

Physical development

- We will use a story as stimulus for dancing - Penguin small.
- We will move apparatus carefully and travel along it safely.
- We will be developing our letter and number formation.

Lets celebrate

Autumn 2

Communication & language

- We will talk about what we see and experience - coke investigation/ traditions.
- We will listen to others and speak clearly and confidently.
- We will use new vocabulary around our topic - e.g. hibernating, freezing, melting.

Understanding of the world

- We will explore what happens when we add mints to coke.
- We will learn about Bonfire and Christmas traditions.
- We will explore the changes of Autumn - go on an Autumn walk.
- We will learn about animals during Autumn and Winter and discuss hibernation.
- We will explore freezing and melting.

Personal, social and emotional development

- We will talk about our own Christmas traditions.
- We will learn about Christmas plays and being in front of an audience.
- We will learn about safety at Bonfire night.

Expressive arts & design

- We will make a hedgehog from leaves.
- We will use cotton buds to make a tree painting.
- We will make patterns on scarves.
- We will make leaf rubbings.
- We will make a Christmas tree from different sized strips of paper.