

Texts covered

- Roaring rockets
- Man on the moon
- On the moon
- You can't eat a princess
- Whatever next

English

- We will write instructions on how to make a rocket.
- We will write a list of the things we will pack to take to the moon.
- We will write about our messy footprints activity.

Maths

- We will find one more/ one less.
- We will practise addition with objects and record our number sentences.
- We will begin to subtract with objects and record our number sentences.
- We will learn the names of 3D shapes.

Physical development

- We will use our jet packs and go on a space hunt on the field.
- We will move in different ways along a space obstacle course.

Blast Off Spring 1

Communication & language

- We will talk about where we live and how this is different to space.
- We will use topic related vocabulary to share our new learning.
- We will use vocabulary from stories to act them out and retell them.

Understanding of the world

- We will explore what happens when we mix colours.
- We will talk about the similarities and differences between humans and aliens.
- We will explore space and planets.
- We will learn about astronauts and their job.
- We will investigate freezing and melting - chocolate.

Personal, social and emotional development

- We will learn to take turns when playing with others.
- We will show confidence in choosing our own activities.

Expressive arts & design

- We will explore and describe different textures by carrying out a messy footprint activity.
- We will make aliens using a variety of materials.
- We will make jet packs for our space/ alien hunt.