

Kingsfield First School

Part of the

Mission Statement:

Learn together, play together, succeed together

Our whole school aims:

- * Give every individual the opportunity to develop to their full potential within a positive whole school culture that is determined and committed to raising standards
- * Promote and develop a learning environment where children are happy, relaxed, secure and eager to learn and where each individual is respected and valued
- * Develop basic skills for life through a rich, broad, balanced and creative curriculum which promotes a healthy and active lifestyle
- * Encourage all children to become well motivated, independent and self disciplined individuals who are willing to make a positive contribution to all aspects of school life
- * Seek opportunities to work in partnership with our parents, carers and appropriate members of our community to help us achieve our goals

Our aims for all pupils:

- * To achieve high standards in all areas of the curriculum.
- * To be highly motivated life-long learners.
- * To be flexible and adaptable for the modern world
- * To have alert and enquiring minds, a spirit of curiosity, qualities of creativity and imagination, resulting in a love of learning
- * To have high levels of self-esteem, respecting themselves, others and the environment
- * To have the ability to adapt to change and the skills to meet the needs of a rapidly changing world
- * To respect religious views, moral values, other ethnic backgrounds and ways of life

Our values and beliefs:

Self-help

We will help each other whilst helping ourselves by working together

Self-responsibility

We will all act responsibly and play a full part in our school

Democracy

We will all have a voice

Equality

We will have equal rights and benefits (according to our contribution)

Equity

We will be treated justly and fairly.

Solidarity

We will support each other and other partner schools.

Ethical Values

We believe in the ethical values of:

- * Honesty
- * Openness
- * Social responsibility
- * Caring for others

The Learning First Federation will provide outstanding educational and learning opportunities by knowing our children well and understanding their needs. It will develop each child to their full potential by offering a wide range of personalised interventions.
