Taller than a hous the Iron Man stood at the Top of the cliff, on the very brink, in the darkness.

The wind sang through his iron fingers. His great iron hed, shaped like a dustbin but as big as a bedroom, slowly turned to the right, slowly turnd to the left. His iron ears turned, this way, that way. He was hearing the sea. His eyes, like headlamps, glowed white, then red, then infrared, searching the sea Never before had the Iron Man seen the sea.

he swayd in the strong wind that pressed against his back. He swayed forward, on the brink of the high cliff.

his right foot, his enormus iron right foot, lifted - up, out into space, and the Iron Man stepped forward, off the cliff, into nothingness.

CRRRAAAASSSSSSH

down the cliff the iron man came toppling, head over heels.

CRASH!

CRASH!

CRASH!

From rock to rock snag to snag, tumbling slowly as he crashed and crashd and crashed. His iron legs fell off. His iron arms brok off, and the hands broke off the arms. His great iron ears fell off and his eyes fell out. His great iron head fell off.

All the seprate pieces tumbled, scatered, crashing bumping, clanging, down on to the rocky beach far below
