

What makes a good Kingsfield Citizen?

To be able to know what is right and what is wrong. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *To respect the laws and understand the consequences of breaking laws. *To be able to follow the rules appropriately in different social settings. 	To be able to talk about how I am feeling and to know who to talk to in different situations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *To know how to deal with my emotions. * To be open and honest about how I am feeling. *To use a range of strategies to deal with how I am feeling. 	To be able to empathise, understand and respect the beliefs and values of different groups of people. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *To be a citizen within my school and within the local and wider community.
To be able to understand the importance of British values and what these represent. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *To begin to understand the importance of democracy. 		To be able to talk about how I keep healthy and how exercise can help me maintain my fitness.
To be able to work as a member of a team. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *To listen to others. * To communicate effectively. *To co-operate with others. *To respect the views of others'. 	INTENT To develop children's understanding of PSHRE and provide them with a foundation of life skills across all contexts(home/school/community) and time spans (primary/secondary/later life).	To be able to keep safe through different situations and learning. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *E-Safety *Stranger Danger * Personal Safety

