Wear Blue For Diabetes

Today children and staff came to school in non-uniform and wearing something blue to help raise awareness of Diabetes. We have also raised a total of £74 for Diabetes UK - thank you!

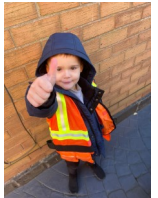

Any donations to Diabetes UK can be made via our JustGiving page - <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/kingsfield-first5>

Our Very Own Local Celebrity!

Hugo in Nursery had the pleasure of opening up the brand new Aldi in Biddulph yesterday!

Hugo walks past the site every morning on his way to school and has been keeping us updated with the building progress.

We are so proud!

Children's News!

Well done to the following children for their out of school achievements:-

Noah Hasson was awarded his red and white belt in Jiu-Jitsu and also moved onto stage 2 swimming.

Secret Reader

Our secret reader this week was Miss Mohring!

EYFS and KS1 listened to the Scarecrows Wedding and their reading challenge is to participate in their phonics lessons.

KS2 listened to 'Stink Bomb and Ketchup-Face and the Badness of Badgers.

Their reading challenge is to participate in their ERICA sessions.

Christmas Treasure Trail

In the absence of a Christmas Fayre we have organised some festive fun in the form of a Christmas Biddulph magical treasure trail!

Mrs Gray will be explaining everything to the children on Monday and if your child would like to take part they can buy the Christmas Trail sheets for a cost of £2 from their class teacher. Prizes are awarded once sheets once are completed and returned to the teachers.

See the poster below - good luck!

Christmas Raffles

We are still looking for any donations of bottles, chocolates, toiletries etc. for our Christmas Raffles!

Any donations will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you
