A message from Mrs Hodson...

It has been a wonderfully busy and enriching week here in school! Our Terrific Tigers enjoyed a fantastic visit to Biddulph Library, where they explored new stories and deepened their love of reading. Year 4 were treated to an inspiring trip to James Bateman Junior High School to watch their brilliant performance of Matilda, which left everyone buzzing with excitement. Meanwhile, our EYFS children had an unforgettable adventure at Bernard's Farm, meeting the animals and learning more about life on the farm. We were also delighted to welcome families into school for our Year 4 Stanley Head celebration event—sharing photos, memories and highlights from the residential was a real joy.

Earlier this week we bid a fond farewell to Miss Day as she begins her maternity leave, we will keep you updated as soon as her bundle of joy arrives—sending lots of love and luck to Miss Day and her partner.

Today, the whole school was brightened up by wearing red to support Red Nose Day. Thank you for your generosity so far—there is still time to donate if you are able, via the link on Arbor or Facebook.

Looking ahead to next week, we are pleased to announce that Jupiter, our house-point winners for this term, are invited to wear their own clothes on the last day of term as a well-deserved celebration of their teamwork and effort. Well done, Jupiter!

Have a great weekend from Mrs Hodson, Ozzy, Elvis and Team Kingsfield x PS please join us in wishing Miss Hill a speedy recovery after her recent operation on her knee (please do not worry, she hasn't had it chopped off!)
